RICH PLANTER WINS CITY GIRL

Mr. Galen Dixon, of Tolu, Weds
Miss Clara Elizabeth Ham-mack, of Marion.

The marriage of Miss Clara Elizabeth Hammack and Mr. Galen Dixon was solemnized Wednesday, April 7th, 1915 at the First Baptist Church.

About three hundred invitations had been issued and the acceptance by a great part of those invited, attested to the popularity of this young couple.

Before the hour appointed a beautiful musical programme was rendered by Miss Lucile Pope at the piano, Miss Juliet Pope, cornet and Mr. Medley Cannan, violin.

At ten o'clock the sweet strains of the wedding march filled the church, and the bride on the arm of Miss Ruth Flanary, maid of honor, slowly descended the left aisle, and the groom and best man, Mr. Virgil Threlkeld, the right aisle.

They were met at the altar, banked with ferns and Easter lilies, by their pastor, Rev. J. B. Trotter, who tied the nuptial knot in a few happily chosen words, both beautiful and impressive.

They drove immediately to the bride's home and after donning their traveling apparel departed on the south bound train for a weeks sojourn in the east.

Miss Hammack, who is the older daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Hammack, is a petite blonde and possesses those admirable traits that make friends everywhere. She wore a coat suit of navy blue, with hat to match and carried a shower bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley.

At all times a beautiful girl, yet on this occasion she was more lovely than ever before.

Miss Flanary was attired in a black and white coat suit with large black hat and carried a bouquet of pink roses.

Mr. Dixon is the son of Dr. and Mrs. J. O. Dixon and is a prosperous young farmer, of near Tolu, Ky. He is one of the most popular young men of Crittenden county. Both the groom and best man wore the conventional black with gray gloves and ties.

They received many rare and costly gifts of silver, cut glass, linen, etc., from their admiring friends.

They will be at home after the twentieth of April at their beautiful country home which is ready for occupancy. —G. D.

A Card Of Thanks.

We wish to return our heartfelt thanks to the good people of Seven Springs and also other vicinities who assisted us and spoke words of consolation to us in the sudden death of our dear husband and father and may God's richest blessings ever be with each one of them, and when afflictions and death come to their homes as it did to ours, may they ever be sustained and aided in a time of trouble with just such friends as we were supplied with and we also want to extend our thanks to the nice undertaker, Mr. Willie Koon for his kind service at the home. These deeds of kindness shall ever be remembered by us.

Mrs. Sarah Patton and children.

THE NEXT GOVERNOR.

Sends Us Some Extracts From Billy Sunday's Temperance Sermon.

"I challenge you to show me where the saloon has ever helped business, education, church, morals or anything we hold dear. Seventy-five per cent of our idiots come from intemperate parents; 85 per cent of the crime is committed by men under the influence of liquor; 90 per cent of the adult criminals are whiskey made.

I go to a family and it is broken up, and I say, "What caused this?" Drink. I step up to a young man on the scaffold and say, "What brought you here?" Drink! Whence all the misery, sorrow and corruption? Invariably it is drink.

The saloon is the sum of all villainies. It is worse than war or pestilence. It is the crime of crimes. It is the parent of crimes and the mother of sins. It is the appalling source of misery and crime in the land. And to license such an incarnate fiend of hell is the dirtiest, low-down damnable business on top of this old earth. There is nothing to be compared to it.

The saloon comes as near being a rat hole for a wage earner to dump his wages in as anything you can find. The only interest it pays is red eyes and a foul breath, and the loss of health. You can go in with money, and you come out with empty pockets. You can go in with character and come out ruined. You go in with a good position and you lose it. You lose your position in the bank, or in the cab of the locomotive. And it pays nothing back but disease and damnation, and gives an extra dividend in delirium tremens and a free pass to hell. And then it will let your wife be buried in the Potter's field and your children go to the asylum, and yet you walk out and say the saloon is a good institution, when it is the dirtiest thing on earth. It hasn't one leg to stand on, and has nothing to recommend it to a decent man, not one thing."

Dear Marshall:—I thought perhaps you had not seen the above clipping and therefore am sending it to you. Yours for temperance and State wide prohibition.

H. V. McChesney.

Will You Do Your Part?

Lines Of Allies Total 1,656 Miles.

Paris, April, 13 (3:15 p. m.)—Troops of the Allies today occupy battle fronts whose length totals 1,656 miles, according to a compilation made by the Matin.

In the western arena, according to these figures, the French occupy 540 miles of trenches, the British 31 miles and the Belgians 17 miles.

In the eastern theatre the Russians face a front of 861 miles, while the Serbians and Montenegrins are fighting along a line which measures 217 miles.

Fate Of Austria Doomed

Say Russians.

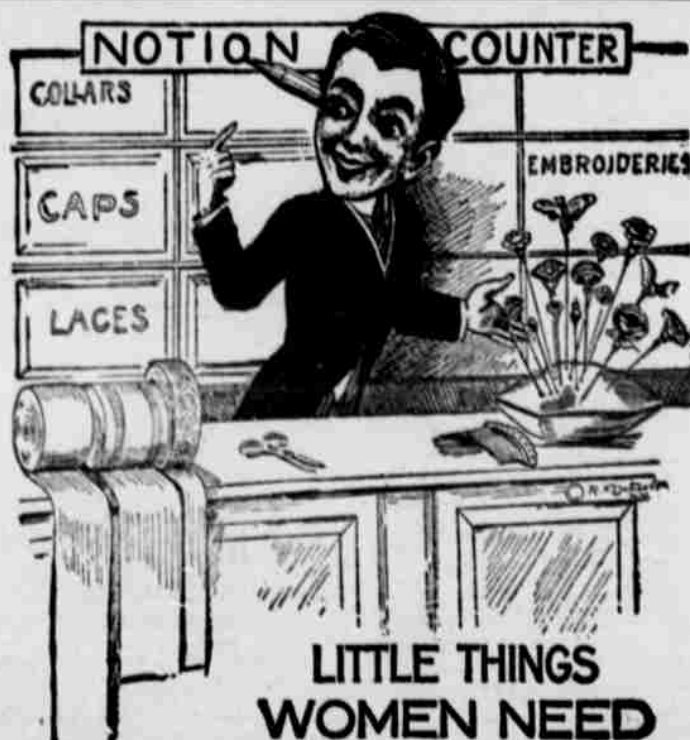

Petrograd, via London, April 13.—The highest importance is attached to the fall of Przemyśl by the Novoe Vremya. Likening the surrender of the Galician fortress to the fall of Metz during the Franco-Prussian war and the capitulation of Port Arthur in the Russo-Japanese war, the paper states that the last obstacle has now been removed to the Russian advance in Galicia and to the heart of the Carpathians.

"Thus is decided the fate of the whole Hapsburg empire, and consequently that of her ally, Germany."

FOR SALE.

COOPER ENDORSES

Y. M. C. A. WORK

Well-Known Man Becomes More Thoroughly Identified With Kentucky.

Lexington, April, 14th.

L. C. Cooper, the philanthropist who electrified Lexington by furnishing, at his own personal expense, the bread that is used in the Orphans' Homes in that city, who established a "Bread Line" for the indigent poor, and who is conducting an agricultural exposition to encourage the farmers, whom he considers the bone and sinew of the land, became more thoroughly identified with Lexington in particular, and Central Kentucky in general, when he became a member of the Young Men's Christian Association.

Mr. Cooper was waited upon by a delegation of some of Lexington's best-known young men and invited to join the local Y. M. C. A. Mr. Cooper, a native Kentuckian, not only accepted the invitation to become a member, but he endorsed the work of one of Lexington's most deserving and commendable institutions.

The demand for Tanlac, the remarkable medicine that is now being introduced by Mr. Cooper to prove his theories on health, is now the biggest thing of the kind ever seen in this section.

POPULAR

COUPLE WED.

Miss Lucile Nunn And Mr. Thomas Waller Were Married Wednesday April 7.

The marriage of Mr. Thomas Small Waller and Miss Lucile Olga Nunn was solemnized at the residence of the bride's parents, Dr and Mrs. W. H. Nunn, on Wednesday morning at 8:30 o'clock, in the presence of the immediate relatives and friends, by the Rev. J. H. Nicholson of the Methodist church.

The decorations were ferns, smilax, pink carnations and yellow narcissus, carrying out the color scheme of pink and yellow, relieved with green.

Miss Mary Casey Dyer presided at the piano and played during the entrance of the bride and groom, Lohengrin Wedding March, and during the ceremony soft sweet strains of the piano accompanied the service of plighted troth.

The Nunn home is one of the most attractive in the city, and in its festive attire it was especially beautiful.

The bridal pair were preceded down the stairs, by their pastor, Rev. Nicholson, and stood in front of the mantel which was banked with ferns, roses, smilax carnations and narcissus. The ceremony was short, but impressive, the double ring service being used. After a short duration of prayer and benedictions, the happy pair left for Evansville to take the train for a wedding journey of ten days.

On their return they will be "at home" on South Main street.

The bride is the only daughter of Dr. and Mrs. W. H. Nunn of this city, and is a young lady of most attractive personality and lovable temperament.

The groom is the oldest son of Mr. and Mrs. B. G. Waller, and is a young gentleman of high moral character and superior mental attainments, having graduated in law from Vanderbilt and Yale and is an attorney of this city, of especial promise.

Mr. Waller is certainly to be congratulated upon having won Miss Nunn for his life companion. Both of the high contracting parties belong to the most prominent families of the county, and they are entering upon this most happy and sacred relationship with bright promise of a useful life and a most happy voyage.

The out-of-town guests were: Miss Ina Dorris, of Henshaw; Miss Mary Casey Dyer, of Sturgis; Miss Evelyn Clement, of Marion; Mrs. Sloan McKinney of Spring Grove; Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Waller and daughter, Miss Elizabeth, of Henderson; Mr. Maurie Nunn, of Marion and Mr. Wright Waller, of Henderson. —Morganfield Sun.
